

GOOD CONDUCT RULE

Participation in school activities is a privilege. School activities provide the benefits of promoting additional interests and abilities in the students during their school years and for their lifetimes.

Students who participate in extracurricular activities serve as ambassadors of the school district throughout the calendar year, whether away from school or at school. Students who wish to have the privilege of participating in extracurricular activities must conduct themselves in accordance with board policy and must refrain from activities which are illegal, immoral or unhealthy.

Students who fail to abide by this policy and the administrative regulations supporting it may be subject to disciplinary measures. The principal will keep records of violations of the good conduct rule.

It is the responsibility of the Superintendent to develop rules and regulations for school activities which rules may include, but are not limited to these in the student handbook. Students wanting to participate in school activities must meet the requirements set out by the school district for participation in the activity.

Any student whose habits and/or conduct on or off school property at any time during the school year or during the summer months are such to make him/her unworthy to represent the ideals, principles and standards of the Humboldt Community School District shall be ineligible, and it shall be the duty of the high school administration to exclude the participant from all participation in athletics, music, speech, drama or other extra-curricular activities according to the following guidelines.
